

Leakage and Undercoverage Rates (Administrative Level 3: County)

Leakage is based on the number of predicted non-poor from the model with environmental variables, who are misclassified as poor when the environmental variables are excluded.

Undercoverage is based on the number of predicted poor from the model that includes environmental variables, who are misclassified as non-poor when the environmental variables are excluded.